

Family Affair

(Father and son/daughter Confrontation)

(Drama)

Don't lie to my face dad, I saw you with her:

don't try to tell me she was your "colleague ". You don't go around kissing your colleagues on the mouth, do you ? (beat)

What do I want from you? I want you to admit it. SAY IT!

Say the words. Tell me you're having an affair, and then I want you to tell me why! (beat) I don't understand how you can do this to mom—to all of us...I hope it's worth it dad, because you are about to ruin our entire family. Or don't you care? Now that you got some young beautiful girl on your arm, nothing else matters.

it made me sick dad, it made me sick!

how old is she? she didn't look much older than me. (beat)

I have not told mom, but you know the sad part dad?

The sad part is that she knows. Don't you see dad, don't you see how unhappy she is?

And it's all your fault: you brought this to our family.

How can I ever trust you? (beat)

it's not up to me to tell mom,

because you will tell mom and when you do

I hope she throws you out because I never thought my own father was a low-life scumbag. I thank you for teaching me a valuable lesson, dad, that I can't even trust my own parents.
