

UNFAITHFUL

DAVID has found out that his girlfriend Julie cheated on him. He confronts her and tries to save the relationship.

DAVID: Julie, please don't walk away when I'm trying to talk to you. You always want to talk, so now that I'm willing, you're not. I know you went to Mickey's party last weekend when I was out of town with my parents. I don't care about that. What I care about is that I heard you left with Jake. I heard you guys were all over each other the whole time and then you left with him. (Beat.)

It doesn't matter who told me—I want to know if it's true. (Beat.)

It is? Why would you do that to me, Julie? Why would you scam me like that? (Beat.)

What? You're tired of us? What the hell is that supposed to mean? We're good together, Jules, you know that – why would you want to throw it all away? I can't believe in one weekend Jake Larson came in and swept you off your feet. And now you're willing to throw away everything we had together. I thought I knew you, Julie. And I thought I could trust you. But you turned out to be a little skank, just like the rest of your friends.

And when Jake steps out on you and breaks your heart, well don't come running back to me.